

Tuition & Fees

2025-2026 Season

- Tuition rates are determined by a family's total number of weekly dance hours.
- Tuition rates are automatically discounted for families taking two or more class hours per week.
- Tuition is paid in four equal installments and is processed through the auto pay feature with the credit card or bank card associated with the family's studio account.
- There is an option to pay by check, cash, or Zelle before the start of each quarter. Families must still retain a credit or bank card on their account. If alternate payment method is not received by the 5th day of the new quarter, tuition will be processed with payment method on file.
- Optional payment plans are available. Please contact the studio for more information.
- Tuition can be prorated for students who enroll after the start of the new dance season.
- Accounts 10 days past due are subject to a monthly late fee of $25.
- There is a $25 fee for all returned checks.
- There are no refunds on tuition once a class begins. Class credit will be issued. Medical/injury credits will be given when accompanied by an official doctor's note.
